Foreword . . .

TIME HAS BEEN GOOD to Elizabethtown College. The 60 years during which she has grown have matured and strengthened her. Throughout the course of her record, she has been blessed with loyal and devoted guidance, with wise and capable leaders.

Through all of the hazards and problems that come to a college, through the "growing pains" of progress, Elizabethtown has continued to prosper, guarded and backed by the knowledge that she was following the command, "Go, teach all nations."

Therefore, the motto. "Educate for Service" is most appropriate. The school has educated men and women as leaders in all fields: the professions (medicine, law, teaching), business, and religion to name a few. She has served mankind by sending her graduates into the world, made strong by the sound principles and training fostered here.

She has served God by her service to man.

In Memoriam

EBY C. ESPENSHADE

"It is the goal of each Candle to so live that he may shed the warmth of his personality in friendliness and good cheer on the campus, and that this same glow may be a unit for measuring the spirit of Elizabethtown." —1934 Etonian

It was in 1934 that Eby C. Espenshade, as a student at Elizabethtown College, was a member of an organization, the "Candles," which had as its goal the above challenge.

Mr. Espenshade, as Director of Admissions since 1947, was the first contact many students had with our College. For this reason, his personality had to be one characterizing the atmosphere, ideals, and purposes of

ELIZABETHTONIA

Where the high-wheeled Conestogas Roll'd their cargoes by, Proudly stands our Alma Mater, On her hilltop high.

When the evening twilight deepens, And the shadows fall, Lingers long the golden sunbeam On thy western wall.

When the shades of life shall gather And sad the heart may be, Still the rays of youth and laughter Shall linger long o'er thee.

E'er to thee we sing our praises With a glad refrain Deus, Lux, et Veritas Her motto we acclaim.

CHORUS:

Flag we love, Gray and Blue Float for aye, o'er thee! May thy sons be leal and loyal To thy memory.

Elizabethtown College and its people. To this end, Mr. Espenshade devoted his life.

His family, friends, and colleagues will long remember him for his warmth of personality and good cheer. It is only from a heart possessing deep love and loyalty for a college that a poem could be written such as Mr. Espenshade wrote during his position as Director of Admissions.

We of Elizabethtown College will long remember two of our most outstanding students, Audrey Kilhefner and John Hollinger. Both graduated with honors after completing four years of academic endeavor. During their years at Elizabethtown, their interest in fellow students and in the activities of the school is evidenced in almost all areas of campus life.

A major in elementary education, Audrey was a class officer for four years and served as a member of the Committee on Women's Affairs for two years. Her musical talents were a part of our college choir, chorus, and orchestra. She gave not only of her talents but her time as she participated in the religious activities of SCA and CBYF.

Sports, student government, and campus religious life claimed the interests of John, a liberal arts major. A star wrestler as well as a member of the tennis team, John was also a leader in other fields. He served as vice president of his class during his sophomore and senior years and was a member of the Student Senate. Many of his efforts and interests were expressed in the religious activity of SCA.

Sincere in purpose, dependable in service and dedicated to a life of high ideals these two people met and fell in love on our campus. The faith of those who loved them is beautifully expressed in a paragraph, taken from a letter written by one of their friends. . . .

"Audrey and John, so recently graduated from College, have now gone on together to a larger life than the one they had planned for here. Bound together by their love in death as well as in life, they are now experiencing joys which you and I can only dimly imagine. To us, with our earthly eyes and limited vision, it seems a tragic ending to hopes and dreams, but for them it is glory unspeakable and the complete fulfillment of all of life."

Dedication

THE EXPRESSION "to take stock of" originated in the world of business. A corporation pauses after a certain period to evaluate its progress and to revise or modify its policies for the coming years. In this sense, Elizabethtown College this year is taking stock of her progress since 1898 and has made her slogan for the time, "Six Decades of Service."

This service has been accomplished in many ways: through organizations, faculty, guidance, companionship, but always with the prayerful attitude of showing gratefulness to her Maker by giving of her best to strengthen the world.

During this year our thoughts turn backward to re-live and recapture the growth of Elizabethtown College from her humble, unpretentious beginnings to the present with its program of expansion and extension.

We realize at this time the solidity of foundation and heritage upon which Elizabethtown can build a bright future, carrying on her motto of "Education for Service." Her capacity and capabilities are great; the motivating force of a dedication to serve God is strong.

Because of the opportunity given to our College's future, we dedicate this issue of the CONESTOGAN to the 60th anniversary of Elizabethtown College and to all of those who have contributed in any way to her growth and maturity.

The College is Born

The Church of the Brethren, Reading, Penna., November, 1898—

THIRTY-FOUR MEN AND WOMEN gathered with one common idea—the need for a new college in eastern Pennsylvania. These 12 women and 22 men, members of the Church of the Brethren, realized the need for a church-related college, although much prejudice against higher education existed within the church.

A committee was appointed to check various sites for the proposed college, and the small group, meeting in Reading, zealously moved to promote the establishment of the institution.

Church of the Brethren, Elizabethtown, Penna., April 8, 1899-

Representatives from the Eastern Pennsylvania District of the Church were called together by S. R. Zug, Mastersonville, and a formal decision to initiate a college was made.

Broad objectives of the new institution were defined, various courses were suggested, and the following locations were considered: Mountville, Columbia, Pottstown, Ephrata, Norristown, Lititz, and Elizabethtown. Mack College (in honor of Alexander Mack, a founder of the Church of the Brethren), Conestoga College, East Penn College, and Elizabethtown College were proposed names for the new institution.

The College Matures

The first Board of Trustees met. Elected to office were: Jesse Ziegler, Royersford, president; T. F. Imler, Lancaster, vice president; George N. Falkenstein, Germantown, secretary; and Samuel H. Hertzler, Elizabethtown, treasurer. Shortly after being elected, Imler resigned and was replaced by Joseph H. Rider, Elizabethtown.

Other members of the first formallyelected board were Nathan Hoffman, Pottstown; M. R. Henry, Derry Church; P. C. Nyce, Reading; and L. R. Brumbaugh, Denton, Md. Other members of the early boards of trustees were George Bucher, Mechanics' Grove, and David Kilhefner, Ephrata. The responsibility of combining Christian ideals and accepted principles of higher education in such a manner as to gain the support of the Church and the respect of the educators fell on the shoulders of these able men. A blended mixture of aggressiveness, dignity, mildness, and conservatism characterized this group.

The founders were confronted with the duty of setting up purposes and ideals for the new institution. The original charter stated the following purpose, which the College continues to uphold: "to give such harmonious development to the physical, mental, and moral powers of both sexes as will best fit them for the duties of life and promote their spiritual interests."

The College through the years has advocated that men and women can serve God through any vocation which serves the needs of mankind. A college education is regarded not only as "preparation for life" but as life itself, and this life in college continually calls for hard work and firmness of purpose.

The early days. . . . In the beginning of the 20th century, the campus boasted only twa buildings af consequence, Alpha and Rider Memorial Halls. The trees that naw sa campletely shade the campus were anly infants, as shawn in these early photas.

In the fields. . . . Students and faculty grew some of the food that was served in the Callege dining hall in the early years. This photo, taken from the area in front of what is now the New Women's Residence, appears to be a cultivating project by students. The man with the large hat in front is H. K. Ober, who was affiliated with the Callege from 1902. He became president in 1918.

Additional ideals formulated by the founding fathers were: a man can give his best only when he keeps his mind as the master of his body; a clean body and a clear mind devoted to a high purpose are basic requirements for a Christian life; and ultimately, genuine culture is the outcome of knowledge and Christian character rather than the result of the knowledge of certain subjects or the acquiring of skills.

September 23, 1899-

The charter of the College was granted by the Court of Common Pleas of Lancaster County. This charter bore the names of Samuel H. Hertzler, Joseph H, Rider, Simon P. Engle, Joseph H. Eshleman, and Benjamin G. Groff, all of Elizabethtown. Groff donated the first ten acres of land for the college campus and, as a contractor, built Alpha Hall and Rider Memorial Hall.

November 13, 1900, Heisey Auditorium, Market and Bainbridge Sts.—

The first class in the history of Elizabethtown College met with six students enrolled —Kurvin Henry, York Co.; Warren Ziegler and Walter Kittinger, both of Montgomery Co.; and Rufus P. Bucher, John Boll and Willis Heisey, all of Lancaster Co. Heisey, who resides in Elizabethtown, is the sole survivor.

The first faculty was headed by G. N. Falkenstein, who acted as principal since the regular appointee, 1. N. H. Beahm, Lordsburg, Calif., recovering from an illness, was prevented from taking his post for the first year. Other faculty members were Elizabeth Meyer, Bareville, and J. A. Seese, Virginia.

Courses were offered in Bible, history, languages, English, mathematics, penmanship, elocution, orthography, and music. These courses were categorized into Teaching, Literary, Scientific, and Classical departments, each requiring three years of study for completion.

After a week of study in Heisey Auditorium, the students moved to the home of Joseph H. Rider, Washington St., for two months.

ALPHA HALL

The College Today

January 22, 1901-

Alpha Hall, the first building on what is now the campus of Elizabethtown College, was completed. Campus activities were centered here—it served as a dormitory, and housed classrooms and administrative offices.

The year 1906 marked another milestone in the college history—Rider Memorial Hall, through the generosity of Joseph Rider, was ready for use. Classrooms, dormitory rooms and the first college library were housed within its walls.

RIDER MEMORIAL HALL

STUDENT-ALUMNI GYMNASIUM

The enrollment increased until additional facilities were needed.

1921 marked the completion of Fairview Apartments, used primarily by married students and their families. Later, this became known as Fairview Hall, a dormitory for men.

In 1928 the Gibble Science Building offered additional classroom and laboratory space, and the following year the Alumni Gymnasium was completed.

NEW WOMEN'S RESIDENCE

After World War II the Business Education Building, North, South, and Center Halls were added. Zug Memorial Library appeared in 1950 and the New Women's Residence was completed in January, 1957. A new wing for the Gibble Science Building was dedicated last fall.

The College Tomorrow

With increased enrollment the need for additional facilities has been recognized. Although definite completion dates have not been set, Elizabethtown College has established a far-reaching expansion program.

As we, on the 60th anniversary of the college, look into the future we are able to envision a dormitory for 250 men, a student union building-field house, a new Business Education building, and a chapel-auditorium.

The College continues to grow physically as it continues to uphold the basic principles of genuine culture which have characterized it for the past 60 years.

Trustees

For six decades Elizabethtown College has been educating men and women for service. Many milestones can be found in the history of the College dating from that eventful year of 1899.

The College board of trustees has, perhaps, played the most important role in the accomplishment of each milestone.

Through the years it has been the duty of the trustees to carry out the desires of the original founders while making decisions that would further progress in the changing times.

They have always been concerned with expanding the facilities of the College to provide better education for more people. At the annual meeting of the board of trustees, one of the chief items on the agenda was the development program. A recommendation calling for five additional buildings on the campus was approved.

Without the efforts of the trustees the College could not have maintained the standards expressed by the founders.

From their decisions and their activities, the public at large judges the College as a whole. The destiny of this institution and her students rests on their shoulders.

Administration and Faculty

These our leaders, what do they give us?...wise counseling ... capable guidance ... good examples ... patient instruction ... workable precepts ... fundamental concepts ... faithful imparting of our heritage ... useful experience ... these they give us ... to have and to keep and to use ... as a foundation to build upon ... they, through their dedication to youth ... through their service ... through their loyalty ... give us of themselves.

President

As one looks back over 60 years to 1899 when Elizabethtown College was chartered the time seems very short. But when one reflects over the individual years and the many significant events that transpired, a panorama of problems, anxieties, uncertainties and heart throbs comes to view.

Today, after 60 years of devotion and sacrifice to the principle expressed in the motto EDUCATE FOR SERVICE, Elizabethtown College has grown into a fully accredited educational institution with a total annual enrollment of over 1200 students and a faculty of more than 60 persons.

The future of Elizabethtown College in the decades ahead should be a great challenge to all. The student population and the financial resources of the service area of Elizabethtown College presents a challenge of almost unlimited proportions.

As the College moves into the decades ahead, our efforts need to be commensurate with our resources.

I am confident that if we succeed in doing this then our achievements will be characterized by growth which knows no low limits and a stature without near horizons.

Three persons comprised the first faculty of Elizabethtown College in 1900. Through the years, as the College expanded, the size of the faculty grew. Today, six decades later, this number exceeds 40.

The tragedy of the Dutch airliner on August 14, 1958, caused changes to be made on the present faculty. Dean D. Paul Greene became Director of Admissions. Prof. Armon Snowden filled the position of acting Dean of Men. Ira Herr replaced Dean Greene as soccer coach.

New faces appearing on the campus this year were Dr. Mary Adams, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Rahter, and Dr. Donald Vosburgh. Dr. Adams joined the History Department, while Dr. Rahter taught English. Mrs. Rahter assumed duties in the library; Dr. Vosburgh implemented the Sociology Department.

Figuring accounts is only one of the tasks that occupies Mr. J. Robert Hollinger, bookkeeper.

Secretaries Mrs. Melvin Mumaw, Mrs. Harald Balmer, and Mrs. Paul Hollinger discuss their duties in a conference in the Admissions Office.

The Student Body

We came to Elizabethtown to learn . . . we will leave, having learned . . . not all we will ever know . . . but for some, the major part of our formal education . . . is gained here . . . there is so much benefit in our learning . . . both technical and cultural knowledge . . . technical, that which we utilize in our work . . . cultural, that which we draw from in our enjoyment of life . . . both are necessary . . . both are provided at Elizabethtown . . . let us hope that, when we leave here . . . we will use our education . . . to enrich all phases of our lives . . . and the lives of those around us,

In Retrospect

COLLEGE is not merely preparation for life; college is living life itself. We have been carpenters at Elizabethtown College these four years. Force and hammers were used to build this fact securely—that we have lived here. This period was more than just preparation.

Ambition and fear, forces of our own making, were at times behind the hammer. More often steadfastness, punctuality, and tolerance dominated. The administration, the faculty, the classmates provided stabilizing influences. The pounding was loud and clear; the results in organizations, religious activities, and sports were gratifying.

As an uncertain group of apprentices we began our freshman year, looking with envy upon the organized union of the upperclassmen. Initiation to union rules, the constitution, the alma mater, and organization slogans came early for we were at the mercy of the relentless sophomores during our first two weeks. The desire to be an integral part of the college union became a strong building force in our college lives.

We laid the planks for our foundation in our various chosen curricula and organizations. Rungs to be climbed on the ladder to achievement included College choir, band, athletics, cheerleading, religious activities, SEAP, political science club, and the CONESTOGAN and ETOWNIAN staffs.

Pulling hard against strong competition in the traditional tug-of-war on Homecoming Day, we made our first bid for union membership. Hopes lifted as our girls tasted victory, but our boys fought a losing battle, and we remained still on the outside. A new year brought new hope and finally success. In January 1956, we achieved the long awaited privilege of organizing our freshman union. Leading us for the first time were Colvin Carter, president; Carl Zeigler, vice president; Fran Hoovér, secretary; and Mort Feder, treasurer.

Two members of the distaff side of our union added another plank to our prestige by being elected to represent us on the May Court. This honor was given to Phyllis Moser and Betty Ware.

Hammering tirelessly, we added our second story, at last deserving the coveted title of upperclassmen as we began our sophomore year. The tables were now turned, for we became the journeymen whose task was to prepare for membership the unseasoned timber of the new freshman class. The strength of our forces held them in check as they staged a revolt—the Homecoming tug-of-war.

Adding the finishing touches to the second level of our structure were Phyllis Moser and Frances Hoover, who represented our class on the May Court. At the end of the year several of our number achieved the status of master craftsmen and were awarded certificates in medical secretarial science and secretarial science. Leaving our ranks to serve in these fields were Carole Bossinger, Mary Bovaird, Lois Countryman, Barbara Darlington, Della Mae Detwiler, Lois Hershberger, Marguerite Dum, Marianne Eicholtz, Frances Hoover, Jane McCollough, Sylvia Shaffer, and Barbara Smith.

New union heads were chosen to lead us as we raised the scaffolding of our third year. Robert Miller, Ronald Varner, Mary Jean Espenshade, and Morton Feder filled the capacities of president, vice president, secretary, and treasurer respectively. It was this year that the college chose its first Homecoming Queen. The Junior journeymen selected Liga Grinbergs, Marjorie Price, and Phyllis Moser as candidates for the title. We appointed building crews for our two big projects—the Junior Variety Show and the Junior-Senior Banquet. Directing the show "Around the World in Eighty Minutes" were Jerry Garland and Arthur Lawton, advised by Mrs. Enterline. The Junior-Senior Banquet held at Hershey Park Golf Club, was made enjoyable by the speaker, Dr. Albert Gray, who surprised us with his vocal talent as he rendered "My Friend, the Witch Doctor, He Told Me What to Say."

In our union government, Marshall Pomroy, vice president, Ralph Baker, treasurer, and Maynard Grunstra, senator, wielded influence in the planning of the year's activities. We were well represented by our journeymen Carpenters on the Committees on Men's and Women's Affairs.

"May Day in Storyland" was successfully planned by a committee on which Mary Jean Espenshade, Jim Eby, Jean Anne Rogers, Carolyn Schneider, and Catherine Weaver were some of the guiding forces. Phyllis Moser and Jeanette Risser were our class beauties elected to the May Court.

Our senior year found more Carpenters picking up hammers and pounding with force in campus activities. Jerry Garland directed the Homecoming Show entitled "Ivy Time" with Dick Markowitz as assistant. Ned Butt was chosen to reign as the first "ugly man" contest winner. Adding beauty to the evening were the candidates for Homecoming Queen among whom we saw seniors Phyllis Moser, Jeanne Risser, and Marilyn Ward. Ken Bowers and his ETOWNIAN staff kept us up to date on union news. Our second major publication, the CONESTOGAN, was headed by Mary Jean Espenshade with Yvonne Mowrey and Beverly Styer as assistant editors.

Many of our number lent their strength to the College athletic teams for the last time in 1959. Leading their respective teams on field and court were hockey captain, Jean Anne Rogers; soccer captain, Gene Wise; men's basketball captain, Bill Pensyl; women's basketball captain, Bill Pensyl; women's basketball captain, Kent Replogle. Spurring the teams on to victory were cheerleading co-captains, Jean Anne Rogers and Jeanette Risser.

Under the leadership of Bob Miller, president; Marty Pomroy, vice president; Mary Jean Espenshade, secretary; and Mort Feder, treasurer, our class selected lights for midcampus as a memorial to Elizabethtown College. The Senior Dinner Dance was held at Allenberry as a last "fling" by the Carpenters. Phyllis Moser was chosen Queen-of-May with Liga Grinbergs as Maid-of-Honor. Jeanne Risser and Jean Anne Rogers were, senior attendants. He helped to plan these activities through the talents of Catherine Weaver, Carolyn Schneider, Jerry Garland, and Jim Eby.

Having driven home the fact that college is life, we shall continue to carry the forces which grew from this living into our various careers. The experiences of initiation, tugs-of-war, square dances, Moose dances, bowling parties, along with examinations and hard work, have left us with a sense of unity and lasting friendship. Proud to graduate in the sixtieth year of Elizabethtown College, the Carpenters have been a part of this history. We have built and in building we have lived.

Campus activities began almost immediately in September with the traditional freshmen initiation. Barry Stevensor was chairman of the Freshmen Initiation Committee.

The Senators were back early in September planning College Activities and welcoming the Freshmen. Our class was represented on the Senate by Barry Stevenson, vice president; Dot Hyde, secretary; Bill Kendig, treasurer; and Bill Hoar, Hank Osborn and Jim Knepper as senators. Our class also had a representative on the Committee on Men's Affairs, Stan Neyer; and on the Committee of Women's Affairs, Gerda Haas.

In no time at all we were sitting in Brinser Lecture Room taking our Junior English Competency Exam. Another experience common to many of the Juniors was a course in the History of the U.S. and Pa.

Faye Groff, Margo Jackson and Joyce Wenger were chosen by the class as candidates for Homecoming Queen which was the final event of the Homecoming Activities.

Lee Miller, chairman of the Class Social Committee, started planning activities right away. The first class-sponsored all-college activity, a hayride, was quite a success. "Hallowe'en In Dogpatch" a dance-party held at Hershey featured a combo made up largely of members from our class, Bill Adams, Steve Cordas, and Ken Dieffenbach, Carl Ziegler, and Faye Groff were the King and Queen for the evening as Daisy Mae and Li'l Abner. In Feb. the class members went bowling as a group.

A big event, not only to our class, but to the campus as a whole was the annual production sponsored by the junior class. Every class member helped in some way to make the show a success. Bill Elston's original script, "Madbeth," was a parody done on Shakespear's classic "Macbeth." A variety of singing, acting, and dancing was included in the show, which was headed by Barry Stevenson, organization chairman.

The Senate campaigns and elections at the beginning of the second semester got under way at full speed starting with the presidential race. Bill Hoar was chosen by the student body to head the Senate for the coming year, while Fred Zimmerman was chosen as one of the Senators. During these elections Dot Hyde was chosen as CONESTOGAN editor and Jim McCormick as business manager of the CONESTOGAN. Bette Holman was elected editor of the ETOWNIAN.

Class of 1960

May Day was one of the last major activities of our Junior year. Our class was represented in the court by two charming girls, Sidney Pegram and Ruth Ziegler.

While all these college and class events were going on, our individual class members were busy participating in many extra-curricular activities. Musical talent was evident among the juniors, as shown by their membership in the college choir, chorus, quartets, orchestra, and pep band.

GARY W. HIBNER York, Pa.

PAUL R. HOLLINGER Elizabethtown, Pa.

Bette J. Holman Arcola, Pa.

M. LOUISE HORNING Rheems, Pa.

Choir members included Lucy Hendricks, who served as secretary of the organization, Nancy Baugher, Marsha Graham, Carroll Hall, Shirley Raffensperger, Sylvia Santee, Asher Halbleib, Ken Dieffenbach, and Don Willoughby. Singers in the chorus were Ruth Ziegler, Audrey Singer, Dottie Zlobik, Pat Williams, Nancy Baugher, Marsha Graham, Don Willoughby, Barbara Yohe, John Mease, Sylvia Santee, Lucy Hendricks, and Asher Halbleib.

VIRGINIA HORTON Pennsauken, N. J.

Ellis L. Hostetter Lebanon, Pa.

Patricia A. Hunberger Palmyra, Pa.

DOROTHY J. HYDE Custer City, Pa.

SANDRA F. JOHNSON Airville, Pa.

HAROLD G. JOHNSON Elizabethtown, Pa.

WALTER T. KLINEDINST York, Pa.

GUY L. KESSLER Tower City, Pa.

Special talent was shown by several class members who were chosen to sing in the women's and men's quartets. Lucy Hendricks, Nancy Baugher, and Shirley Raffensperger were included in the women's quartet; while Asher Halbleib contributed his talents to the College male quartet. Orchestra members were Marsha Graham, Bill Adams, Nancy Baugher, Ken Dieffenbach, and Mary Feaser, while Marsha Graham, Bette Holman, and Joyce Wenger continued in the girls' Pep Band that was formed last year.

Fred Zimmerman added to the leadership of the ECCA as vice president and Dot Hyde served on the program planning committee of that group. Eta Gamma Kappa members included Dave Cassel (president), Fred Zimmerman (vice president), and Guy Kessler (secretary-treasurer). Other members were Don Willoughby, and John Hench. Shirley Raffensperger, Kathy Weller, Nancy Baugher, Lucy Hendricks and Carroll Hall were active in CBYF.

Our class has always been recognized as one possessing an unusual abundance of enthusiasm and school spirit. This year was no exception. Campus sports, for example, were given firm support by quite a few of our athletically inclined classmates. In soccer our class added power to the team with Lance Strayer, Bill Hoar, Fred Zimmerman, Bill Kendig, Hank Osborn and Jim Knepper.

Class of 1960

The girls who showed their talents in field hockey were Pat Williams, Carol Beard, Louise Horning, Martha Reese, Sidney Pegram, Ginger Horton, and Doris Krieg. Pat Williams, Carroll Hall and Barbara Yohe played on the girls' basketball team. Marty Reese was the manager. Bill Kendig had another good year on the wrestling team.

With the arrival of spring weather, we saw Lloyd Bortzfield on the baseball diamond, and Charles Groff and Shirley Raffensperger on the tennis courts. Hank Osborn kept the Blue Jay hopping again this year while Carroll Hall, Carol Beard, and Marty Reese kept the fans cheering at our basketball games.

STANLEY R. NEYER Tower City, Pa.

KARL G. PETRY York, Pa.

SHIRLEY A. RAFFENSPERGER Elizabethtown, Pa.

Our class was well represented in the two athletic organizations on campus, as well as in the intramurals. Varsity E members included Jack Miller, Charles Groff, Lance Strayer, Hank Osborn, Fred Zimmerman, Bill Kendig, Carroll Hall, and Bill Hoar. Carroll Hall served as president of WAA and Gerda Haas as secretary. Other members were Donna Wolf, Shirley Raffensperger, Kathy Weller, Ruth Ziegler, Marsha Graham, Dorothy Zlobik, Pat Williams, Barbara Yohe and Marty Reese.

JAMES R. RAVER Columbia, Pa.

MARTHA H. REESE Wilmington, Delaware

JAMES W. REAGAN Connellsville, Pa.

LARRY E. RENTSCHLER Robesonia, Pa.

DONALD T. RUNK Coatesville, Pa.

SYLVIA M. SANTEE Northampton, Pa.

PAUL C. SCHULTZ Reading, Pa.

DAVID H. SIMONDS Wilmington, Delaware

Journalists in the class worked tirelessly on the College publications, the ETOWN-IAN and CONESTOGAN. Bette Holman showed her talent not only by being assistant editor of the ETOWNIAN but also by being a regular reporter on the Elizabeth town Chronicle. Bill Hoar also wrote for the ETOWNIAN. Those on the CONESTO-GAN staff included Dot Hyde, Ruth Ziegler, Joyce Wenger, Marsha Graham, Ginger Horton, and Ellen Gaines.

Lance L. Strayer Mount Wolf, Pa.

Politically speaking Lee Miller and Dot Hyde were in the spotlight as president and ICG chairman of the Political Science Club. Bill Kendig and Joyce Wenger were members of the club.

Melanie K. Swingler Columbia, Pa.

MANUEL B. TEJEDA Newburgh, N. Y.

WILLIAM P. WENTZ Harrisburg, Pa.

JAMES T. WHITE Lititz, Pa.

PATRICIA WILLIAMS Watsontown, Pa.

JAMES M. WILLIARD, JR. Highspire, Pa.

YVONNE WILLIARD Highspire, Pa.

This year the Christmas drama was given as a pageant, "The Feast of the Star," with the combined efforts of the College choir and drama department. Members of the pageant were Fred Zimmerman, Clyde Roach, Guy Kessler, John Hench, and Bob Yohn, and Joyce Heppelein helped as assistant director. The ECCA again selected a play as part of its exchange program, this year directed by Dottie Zlobik and Marialice Myers. Jim Raver, Ruth Ziegler and Pat Williams were part of the cast. A modern religious drama, "Christ in the Concrete City," was given in the Elizabethtown Church of the Brethren. Fred Zimmerman was a part of that-group.

DONALD E. WILLOUGHBY Elizabethtown, Pa.

JAMES E. WITT Elizabethtown, Pa.

DONNA R. WOLF Gettysburg, Pa.

JAMES W. YOCUM Middletown, Pa.

Barbara A. Yohe York, Pa.

RUTH E. ZIEGLER Bethel, Pa.

ROBERT L. YOHN Port Royal, Pa.

Our class was represented in the science students' organization, Phi Beta Chi. These representatives were Charles Byers, Pat Williams, Hank Osborn, Joyce Wenger, Ken Dieffenbach, and Judy Wallin as secretary of the group.

James Reagan served as President of the French Club. Acting as part of the planning group, Donna Wolf and Bill Kendig were the Senate Social Committee.

Some of the class members were kept busy as laboratory assistants, resident assistants, library assistants and College Store employees. Those serving as laboratory assistants included Charles Byers, Ruth Ziegler, Gary Zimmerman, Ken Dieffenbach, Pat Williams, Hank Osborn, Judy Wallin, Bill Adams, and Steve Cordas. Asher Halbleib worked with the audio-visual department, Sidney Pegram in the music department, and Stan Neyer in the accounting department.

Residence assistants were Gerda Haas, Ruth Ziegler, Jim Knepper, Bill Kendig, Lucy Hendricks, Sylvia Santee, Lorraine Leppo, Marsha Graham, Joyce Heppelein, Barbara Yohe, Marion Gilchrist, and Nancy Baugher. Joyce Wenger was a library assistant and Dot Hyde worked in the College store.

SOPHOMORE—a word feared by freshmen, looked down upon by juniors, and simply ignored by seniors has a deep and reverent meaning to us, the class of 1961. It represents our second year of college packed full of good times along with hard work. For most of us, it was the hardest, the year we learned what it is to be challenged. But now with the textbooks, bluebooks, "unknowns," and term papers out of our minds, pleasant memories of class events come flooding back.

We take most pride in the Blazer Tradition which our class had the privilege of starting. Our class is the first to have a college blazer with our own originally designed emblem. Belva Cassel designed the emblem for the handsome gray blazers that we wear with pride.

Under the competent leadership of our officers—Eugene Loy Garber, president; Helmut Baer, vice-president; Elizabeth Forrer, secretary; and Glenn Bruckhart, treasurer many other class functions turned out to be great successes.

A welcoming committee, popularly termed the F.I.C., composed of sophomores under the leadership of Barry Stevenson, a junior, was on hand to greet the freshmen. Through these 20 people our feelings of vengeance resulting from memories of our own initiation dwindled . . . but then can a hardboiled egg ever compare with a foul-smelling onion?

Homecoming Day was not as victorious as we would have liked it to be, but nevertheless we had fun. The tug-of-war took place once again in the traditional location over Lake Placida. Although our sophomore boys had the pleasure of giving the freshmen two good duckings, we lost due to an unfortunate default on our side in the third pull.

"WELCOME to Elizabethtown College— Register Under the Elms." When we saw this sign, we knew that our dreams of college life had become a reality. After meeting roommates and getting partially settled in our rooms, we registered under the elms and made acquaintances with fellow freshmen.

The next several days we were introduced to the campus and campus life. Teas and entertainment sponsored by many college organizations provided an opportunity to meet upperclassmen as well as other freshmen. Even rain during the picnic at Long's Park and the freshman hike failed to dampen our enthusiasm! Folk games added that final touch to our last informal get-together.

Free minutes of these first college days were spent in room-decorating, sight-seeing tours, and gab-sessions. Since this was the first that many of us had been away from our families, we experienced the feelings of homesickness, but with the coming of scheduled events, our thoughts were occupied.

Settling down to the normal procedures of college life, we became accustomed to professors, long lectures, term papers, cafeteria lunches, and those essay examinations!

Frash Tam Trimmer, Penny Boyer, John Strah, Ray Bowen and Jean Zettlemoyer discuss the regulations far the ancaming initiation week.

Just as we had adapted ourselves to the college routine, we became the victims of the Sophomore F.I.C. Committee. We were subjected to a new title, "Egghead, Puny Frosh." Humbly we freshmen lined up before the New Residence Hall at 6:30 a.m. to receive our first instructions from the "supereminent committee members." Complaining as we marched across campus attired in dinks and signs, our first task was a "campus-cleanup-campaign."

There was a mad scramble to obtain the eggs which were to be hardboiled and autographed by ten committee members. This proved to be a tedious and delicate task since no cracked eggs were accepted. In addition, we were required to button our dinks to all upperclassmen and to present toothpicks and matches on request. We looked upon our daily meetings with F.I.C. in terror! Hula hoops and dissertations provided amusement for the onlooking freshmen and upperclassmen.

Barbara Garvine, Linda Kranch, Janet Dahms, Jean Apgar, and Beverly DeWitt choose a popular conversation spot, the steps near Rider Memorial Hall.

At last that long awaited day arrived! As the freshmen lined up for the tug-of-war, we were hopeful that this would be the last to wear those hated dinks. Our cheering girls, costumed as pirates, encouraged the nervous freshman team. Pulling with all our might, we gave the sophomores an unexpected dip in Lake Placida. Freshmen were victorious after a forfeit from the sophomore team. Our triumph in the cheering contest also added to the honor of our class.

Initiation week was climaxed with a bonfire on the shores of Lake Placida. After an Indian dance around the fire and a profession of undying love for F.I.C. members, we were permitted to burn our eggs and signs. Now only dinks distinguished us from upperclassmen!

We eagerly looked forward to our first big weekend—Homecoming. The dance, "Fall Fantasy," held at the Hershey Park Golf Club, introduced the activities of this annual event. A fantasy it was as we danced among the colorful fall decorations to the music provided by "The Lee Mac Five."

Homecoming Day reached its climax with the crowning of a freshman candidate, Carol Rees, as queen. Our two other attendants in the homecoming court were Janet Espenshade and Judy Neilson. Homecoming was indeed a victorious day for the freshman class!

By this time we were firmly entrenched in campus organizations and activities. Many of us joined the all-college chorus. Jane Barsumian, Glenn Bucher, Ruth Ann Geiselman, Wilbur Gibble, Mary Gladfelter, Dale Kilhefner, Fred Landis, Judy Nesbit, and Evelyn Strauss were selected for the College choir.

Bill McCracken, Jack Yader, Wai-Mun Cheung, and Tai-Keung Fu, gather an a bench near Alpha Hall to talk about the soccer victory. Sports-minded freshmen took an active part in the field of athletics. Fred Buckendorff, Larry Doster, William Everhart, Samuel Gruber, Gene Kerns, Donald Rutt, and Robert Teufel added skill to our basketball teams. In women's athletics, Janet Espenshade, Martha Eppley, Sally Martin, Janet Myers, JoAnn Robinson, and Arnita Thurston were active participants on the hockey team.

With their boundless energy and pep, freshmen cheerleaders Judy MacKenzie, Judy Nesbit, Bonnie Scott, and Linda Wagner helped to cheer our teams on to victory.

Many freshmen participated in campus religious activities and dramatics. Feeling that we had become a part of "old E. C.", we were proud as we sang the Alma Mater.

The approaching Christmas holidays filled us with the season's spirits. Christmas decorations appeared everywhere on campus. We'll never forget the huge Christmas tree that stood in the center of the dining hall. Caroling and parties were a part of the season's activities. Freshmen enjoyed the "Goodwill Party" sponsored by the spohomores at the Harrisburg Civic Club. The "Holly Ball," held at the Hershey Park Golf Club, highlighted the yuletide's festivities. In an atmosphere of winter wonderland, we danced beneath the sparkling crystal ball revolving among the candy canes and holly.

Linda Wagner tunes in the radio as Darla Bailor, Sandra Prosser, Judy Pearce, and Gloria Albright wait to hear the top hit song.

Sam Gruber halds the fountain far Robin Bonier, while Julie Harnly, Janet Myers, Jayce Taylar, and Mary Lau Shimmel wait their turn.

In spite of all this fun and frolic, we were glad for the arrival of Christmas vacation. Each of us was eager to renew old friendships at home.and to relax before those long hours of studying for semester exams.

The return to campus was a joyous occasion as we exchanged our holiday experiences. But all too soon, the fun ceased and we began to study for the approaching semester exams. Late hours were spent in preparation. Tension in the dorms increased as time decreased. After that last exam, some of us wished that we had studied more, but, relieved that they were over, we more than welcomed the semester vacation.

Before we knew it, we were "Dancing in the Dark" at the Penn Harris Hotel. Girls in their pastel-colored evening gowns reminded us that spring was just around the corner! The decorations, music, refreshments, and the people we were with made this a memorable evening!

Days passed by quickly, and after the May Day activities, we realized that our first year of college life would soon be over. Although we had to say "good-bye" to our roommates, friends, and campus life, our class looked forward to its sophomore year and the many new experiences and activities.

Government

Sandra Swann, Gerda Haas, Beverly Styer, Ruth Varner, and Jeanette Risser, members of the cammittee on Women's Affairs, are relaxing by reading a magazine.

Committee on Men's Affoirs is having a heated discussion inthe New Residence Lounge. The members are: Ralph Baker, Eugene Gordon, Thomas Collins, Stanley Neyer, Earl Mellott and Edwin Geiger.

AFTER MANY YEARS of development the Student Senate and the Committees of Men's and Women's Affairs have established themselves as important organizations in the life of Elizabethtown College. Their members are ready and willing to undertake and promote that which is beneficial to the student body and the College.

To accommodate the ever-enlarging student body, the Senate will continue to promote social and recreational programs for the College. As part of this year's program, the Student Senate initiated the all-campus blazer tradition. A Student Directory and jointly sponsored activities among the classes were further innovations. The 12-year-old Constitution took on a new look when several amendments were added, among them the changing of representation and combining of the offices of secretary and treasurer.

The Senate also assisted in arranging Homecoming Day and carried out the intramural sports program throughout the year.

From all indications, the Student Senate will play an important part in the success and development of Elizabethtown College.

Athletic Organizations

THE VARSITY E club first appeared on campus in 1951 as an outgrowth of the Cheerleading Athletic Association. Initiated by Athletic Director Ira R. Herr, it is an honorary society for those male and female athletes who hold varsity letters.

One of the foremost objectives of the club is to enhance the sports program of the College. In line with this, it supervises the printing of basketball programs and the sports program for Homecoming Day. Members also man the refreshment stands during athletic events.

The group enjoyed a trip to a Hershey hockey game during the year.

LAUNCHED IN 1957, the Women's Athletic Association is one of the newer campus organizations. Despite its relative youth, the WAA carries on an ambitious program designed to further athletics for women on the campus.

One of its prime projects is the supervision of a broad intramural sports program for women. Competition includes field hockey, volley ball, ping pong, bowling, basketball, badminton, tennis, archery, and softball.

ORIGINALLY known as OUR COLLEGE TIMES, the College newspaper first appeared in May, 1904. It was published monthly from 1907 until 1957 when it became a bi-monthly publication. Not only has the paper undergone changes in format and content but in name also, for in 1933 it officially came to be known as the ETOWNIAN.

Etownian

Circulation of the newspaper also has expanded. Today a circulation of 7,000 copies shows that the ETOWNIAN is an important source of communication for students, faculty, friends, and alumni of the College. Newspapers are sent to virtually every state as well as a number of foreign countries.

Honoring the 60th anniversary of the College, a historical column, "Down the Decades," was added to the 1958-59 ETOWNIAN. Knowing that Advisor James Yeingst was always available for advice, Ken Bowers, Editor-in-Chief, and his staff worked hard to maintain the campus journalistic standards.

Mrs. Hollinger guides Elaine Semple, Carol Heilman and Kitty Lau Abey, of the ETOWNIAN business staff, in distributing papers effectively.

While Clara Barrett and Jaan Lank write articles, Beverly Styer and Jayce Miller prepare the next issue af the ETOWNIAN.

Conestogan

WITH THE EXCEPTION of 1929, the College yearbook has recorded a word and picture history of campus life regularly since 1922.

Until 1951 when it became the CONES-TOGAN, the yearbook was known as the ETONIAN. The basic format has remained virtually unchanged through the years.

The first edition was a 142-page paperbound publication. The following year a hard cover was added, and except for 1928, has been used since. The metal-inlaid seal on the cover of the 1959 CONESTOGAN is the very latest in cover designs.

In the background are Danald Garman, Kent Replogle, Jean Anne Rogers, Catherine Weaver, all members of the sparts staff.

THE STUDENT CHRISTIAN Association underwent a major change during the year in changing its name to the Elizabethtown College Christian Association. Hence, it became known as ECCA.

Despite the name change, the organization's record of service continued unabated. The annual Christmas party for children at the Neffsville Orphans Home was a major project during the yearend holiday season.

A well -attended banquet, featuring an address on "Psychology and Religion" by Rev. Richard Kirk, Lancaster, was held in January. Members of the group staged a religious play in the local area and in Ohio over the Easter holidays, while still others visited United Nations headquarters in New York over Easter recess. 1N MARCH, 1953, the first meeting of Eta Gamma Kappa was held. "The Galilean fellowship," which is the interpretation of the Greek words, was created to provide fellowship and discussion of common concern among men who are interested in a full-time church vocation.

This year there are seven denominations represented in the club and, in accordance with its constitution. the three officers represent three different denominations.

David Cassel, Professor Byerly, and Guy Kessler plan an Eta Gamma Kappa meeting.

HOSTING THE AREA conference of Lutheran Student Associations from neighboring campuses highlighted the year of the College LSA.

Working under the direction of Rev. Raymond Fetter, pastor of the Elizabethtown Lutheran Church, the 20 members of the local group held monthly meetings to implement their program.

The group enjoyed a spaghetti dinner early in the year and then arranged the area LSA meeting in the local church.

THE BRETHREN STUDENTS of the College participated in their first organized fellowship in 1955. The CBYF developed out of conformity to patterns on other Brethren college campuses, where such programs had already been established.

The CBYF is the main channel of the annual BSCM conferences, which are usually held during Thanksgiving vacation. This year, however, the BSCM conference was held in California during the Christmas holidays, with a delegation from our campus attending.

College Choir

MUSIC HAS HAD A PLACE on the Elizabethtown College campus almost from the very beginning.

Choruses for both men and women were found in the early decades of college history. It was not until the combined choruses wished to sing the "Hallelujah Chorus" that an accompaniment was used. Since that time, the choir has sung with accompaniment as well as a cappella.

The choir, as we know it today, was founded and directed in 1934 by E. G. Meyer, now one of the College's librarians. This early choir had only 24 members. The purpose of the choir was to give concerts at Churches of the Brethren to acquaint them with the College.

This year the choir, directed by Nevin W. Fisher and accompanied by J. Atlee Young, presented the most extensive list of concerts on record, including 38 in churches and several in high schools. Highlights of the season were tours in eastern and western Pennsylvania in April and a concert at the District Rotary Convention, which was held at the Hershey Community Theatre in March.

This group, under the direction of Mr. Noah Klauss, met for practice on Thursday evenings in Brinser Lecture Room.

We were fortunate in obtaining the services of Mr. Klauss as conductor, for he was also busily occupied as Conductor for the Harrisburg Youth Symphony, Assistant Conductor of the Harrisburg Symphony Orchestra, and Conductor of the Elizabethtown Area High School Orchestra.

Three members of our orchestra, Janice Ferster, George Smith, and Joe Wagenseller, claimed the distinction of playing in the Harrisburg Youth Symphony.

MEMBERS OF THE Sock and Buskin drama club were among the busiest on campus during the year. Under the direction of Mrs. C. G. Enterline, advisor, the club staged various productions almost continually.

Opening the campus drama program was the Homecoming Day production of Aria da Capo, which was followed by The Potting Shed in November. Later the group worked with the choir in a Christmas pageant, Feast of the Star.

In addition, campus dramatists assisted in Madbeth, the Junior Class Show. Christ in the Concrete City was staged in various area churches. Six one-act plays were produced in April.

SEAP APPLIED for its first charter in 1948. The club was then named the Future Teachers of America, the name being changed in 1957. Since the beginning it has been an active club under the advisorship of Prof. Hoover.

Students belonging to this association have all the privileges of a professional teacher. They receive state and national publications and through discussion groups, speakers, and movies they learn more about the responsibilities of the teacher.

To become acquainted with the laws of the teaching profession is one of the aims of the club.

Fostering an understanding of American governmental procedures and furthering a knowledge of international affairs are the dual purposes of the club.

The main event for this year was the Regional Conference of ICG, which-was held at Millersville on March 7. Club members also went to the State Convention of ICG at Harrisburg on April 16 to 18.

PHI BETA CHI has one main purpose. It is to maintain and stimulate interest in scientific subjects through practical applications. Profs. Custer and Tyndall, advisors, try to see that this is accomplished.

The club was established at the beginning of the fall semester in 1932. Dr. and Mrs. Apgar acted as advisors until a few years ago.

Movies, speakers, and field trips are activities that were enjoyed throughout the year. A fishing trip to Delaware, a hike to Mt. Gretna, and a visit to the Armstrong Cork Company were of special interest to this group.

Sports

The shrill of a whistle . . . the cheer of the crowd ... the record of wins and losses . . . the practices to achieve the necessary skills . . . these are a part of athletic activities . . . but more than these . . . is the daily growth in ourselves . . . the laughter as we share in a joke on our coach . . . the companionship traveling to away games . . . the sense of precision in teamwork properly used . . . the fellowship and lasting friendships born of these activities . . . here we grow . . . here we become better suited to assume our places in the world.

Cheerleaders

CONSTITUTING one section of loyal supporters to our basketball team, the cheerleaders and pep band take the court at all home basketball games and those contests within a fifty mile radius of campus. The pep band, a real asset, is composed of all women and establishes a winning spirit as they strike up "When The Saints Go Marching In." Accompanying the musical background, the cheerleaders encourage the crowd spirit with a variety of cheers—"Go, Fight, Win," "Team Cheer," "Echo," and "Yea, Blue Jays Fight," naming just a few.

The fans cannot be excluded from this group because without their interest, the cheerleaders and pep band would be an act all their own.

ELIZABETHTOWN COLLEGE continued to glow in the soccer spotlight in the East by compiling a very respectable seasonal log of eight wins and two losses, equalling last year's history-setting record.

This season also marked the return of Ira Herr as coach. Herr, who started soccer at the school in 1937, and has coached the sport on and off for about nine years, took over for Paul Greene, who resigned to become Director of Admissions.

Captained by All-America candidate Gene Wise, the Jaymen booted home 55 goals over the season for an average of 5.5 per game. Defensively the Blue and Gray allowed only 16 tallies, less than two per game.

Bill Hoar led the scoring parade for the Herrmen with 14 goals, followed closely by Manny Tejeda, who learned soccer in his native Guatemala, with 12 counters, and Carroll Hershey with nine goals.

In summation, the booters combined good, aggressive team play, ball control and ball handling for their successful season.

ON COLLEGE HILL victory rang out! The '58 hockey season spelled success for Coach Julia Risser's hustling hockeyites who handed their opponents a total of six setbacks. One goal tied East Stroudsburg with only a minute of play left in the second half. This has been the best showing the lassies of E-town have ever had in competition with ESSTC. The perfect season outlook was squelched by the Gettysburg eleven who traveled to defeat us 2-0. Kay Jones, sophomore, and Jeanne Risser, senior, led the Blue Bird attack with seasonal scoring records of 10 and 8 respectively. Phyllis Moser came in third with 5 counters. A total of 28 goals were recorded by the Jays in their offensive play. The solid defensive held the rival teams to 6 goals. Nancy Kurtz, Jean Anne Rogers, and Kitty Weaver, all seniors, formed the hub of the resistance.

DROPPING THEIR FINAL two games of the season, the Elizabethtown College women's basketball squad fell below the .500 mark in season's play and ended the year with a record of four wins and six defeats.

The 4-6 mark equalled last year's record and is the second losing season in the four years Miss Julia Risser has coached the Blue Birds. Miss Risser's overall record to date is 23 victories against 18 defeats.

Leading scorers for the Blue Birds were Carroll Hall, who had 138 points, and Sandra Swann, who had 133.

Three seniors ended their court careers this year. They are Phyllis Moser, Joan Rigler, and Catherine Weaver.

PATIENCE, FORTITUDE, and some good talent finally paid off for the Blue Jays as they compiled a highly successful cross country record of 6 wins against 2 defeats, the best in the three-year history of the sport here.

In the first two years of the sport, the Jays won only three meets. But Coach Ira R. Herr was optimistic. "It takes time to get a winning team in a newly-established sport." Events proved that this was the year.

The Blue Jay harriers were led by Glenn "Stretch" Bruckhart, Bernie Thome, and Wilbur Gibble, who made a habit of showing their heels to the opposition. Helmut Baer and Don Hosler also showed well and gave the squad that all-important depth.

In retrospect: a great year.

Despite the dismal record, Coach Dick Hershey had a few things to brighten his life. Co-captains Dave Anwyll and Bill Kendig had winning records as did Freshman Jim Weaver. Kendig was sidelined late in the season with a shoulder injury.

In post-season competition, Anwyll, Weaver, and Senior Colvin Carter carried the Elizabethtown banner into Middle Atlantic Conference competition at Hofstra College.

Basketball

IN THE LATE STAGES of the 1958-'59 basketball season, when the Blue Jays were fighting to keep their heads above the .500 mark, Coach Don Smith remarked:

"If this team finishes with a winning record, I'll consider it one of my finest because we've played a rough schedule."

As it turned out, the Jays did finish with a winning record, 11 victories against 10 defeats.

Led by Bill Pensyl, who scored 1,372 points during his basketball career here, including 487 in his last year, the Jays improved constantly as the season wore on. Sophomore Bob Geiger's 330 points and Senior Kent Replogle's 174 markers added depth to the attack.

Other stalwarts were Seniors Ed Geiger, Jack Hedrick, and Sheldon Dent and Sophomores Glenn Bruckhart, Gene Gordon, and Marty Hefferan. Freshmen Gene Kerns and Sam Gruber gave promise for future years.

Pensyl capped a brilliant career by being named to the Eastern Collegiate Athletic Conference All-Star team for the season.

Tennis

HOPING TO IMPROVE their 1958 record of five victories against seven defeats, the Elizabethtown College tennis team opened practice as soon as spring's first faint blush appeared on the weather scene.

Led by Captain Kent Replogle, who split 12 singles matches last year to lead the squad, the Blue Jays' main problem was thought to be depth. Following Replogle were Gene Gordon, Charles Groff, and Jerry Garland, all of whom played fine tennis last year.

Coach Don Smith's big problem, at least during the early practices, was to come up with some newcomers who could back up the top men. As the CONESTOGAN went to press, the problem was not resolved.

HOPES FOR ANOTHER successful baseball season were high as the CONESTO-GAN went to press. The optimism was based on the return of a solid core of seasoned performers and a very promising group of newcomers.

Back for another fling were First Baseman Lloyd Bortzfield, Second Baseman Carroll Hershey, Pitchers Bob Geiger, Glen Crum, and Sheldon Dent, Catcher Bill Pensyl, and Outfielders Gene Wise and Warner Cheeks.

Among the newcomers who figured to make the squad in some capacity were Shortstop Gene Kerns and Third Baseman Ellwood Kerkeslager.

Last year's club finished at a fast clip to compile a record of 10 wins, 6 defeats, and a tie. Gene Wise led the team in hitting with a .462 average. Other leading hitters were Jim Sarbaugh (.367), Carroll Hershey (.394), and Lloyd Bortzfield (.388). Gene Bucher was the top pitcher with a record of five wins, two defeats.

Campus Life

From freshman orientation week to graduation ... our campus life is highlighted ... by the many special occasions ... we have taken part in ... each new experience has played its role ... in shaping our futures ... and our characters ... such occasions will play a big part ... in our lives after graduation ... it is beneficial to us ... to participate in them now ... who can say ... what is the most important facet of education.

Convocation

Honared.... David E. Brinser receives an honorary degree from Pres. A. C. Baugher as Dr. O. F. Stambaugh adjusts the academic hood.

ELIZABETHTOWN COLLEGE most appropriately dedicated the new wing of the Gibble Science Building during the Charter Day Convocation program, September 24. The service officially launched the 60th anniversary year.

The speaker for the occasion was the Rev. E. Fay Campbell, D.D., director of Higher Education, United Presbyterian Church, U.S.A. His topic was "The Role of the Church-Related College Today."

Dr. Joseph W. Kettering, chairman of the Board of Trustees, was presented the key to the new wing by Paul M. Grubb, chairman of the Trustees' Committee on Buildings and Grounds.

To complete the program, an honorary degree of Doctor of Science of Pedagogy was conferred upon David E. Brinser, an alumnus of Elizabethtown College, a retired public school teacher, and a contributor to the Development Program.

President A. C. Baugher presided during the ceremony. Dean Roy McAuley read the citation accompanying the degree and Dr: O. F. Stambaugh adjusted the hood.

WITH HOMECOMING DAY activities came the close of the "Elizabethtown College 60th Anniversary Week," which was proclaimed by action of the Elizabethtown Borough Council.

To highlight the day, Elizabethtown College's second Homecoming Queen was chosen. Carol Rees, a freshman from Fort Washington, Pa., was the choice of the judges, all alumni.

To add to the day of excitement and fun the freshman men won the traditional tugof-war across Lake Placida and the freshman women won the cheering contest.

The Jay Gals field hockey team defeated Shippensburg State Teachers College with a score of 6-1. The Jayvees followed suit and won, 4-1.

The Blue Jay soccer team's defeat by Drexel Tech did not alter the spirit of the day in the least.

The program of the evening, "Ivy Time," featured, along with the crowning of the queen, the crowning of the winner of the Ugly Man Contest, who was Ned Butt, senior. The program also consisted of an array of stage acts and musical numbers.

Throughout the day Alpha Hall's living room was the scene of the 60th anniversary exhibit, entitled "Our College—Past and Future."

To many, this was Elizabethtown College's most successful Homecoming.

MAY DAY was another jewel in the crown of activities that marked the 60th anniversary year for Elizabethtown College.

Before admiring throngs, students carried out a program dealing with the anniversary theme while Queen Phyllis Moser looked on from her throne. Liga Grinbergs served as Maid-of-Honor for the occasion.

Flashing cameras recorded the occasion for posterity as beaming parents, friends, and others look on. It was a banner day and certainly one of the highlights of this anniversary year.

THE WOMEN'S AUXILIARY of Elizabethtown College, a young but extremely active organization, moved from one project to another in serving the College and didn't even bother to come up for air.

At a luncheon meeting in February, the group completed payment on furnishings for a pajama lounge in the New Women's Residence and then announced plans to equip a darkroom on campus with a full array of photography gear. Under the leadership of Miss Ethel M. B. Wenger, president, the Auxiliary also mapped plans for doubling the current membership of 950 and for taking a more active role in May Day and Homecoming Day exercises.
